FREE SAFETY & SURVIVAL TRAINING FOR COMMERCIAL FISHERMEN

MAY 17TH IN GLOUCESTER

On Friday, May 17, 2013, a free safety and survival training will be held at the Coast Guard Station, 17 Harbor Loop, Gloucester from 7:30 AM to 3:00 PM. The hands-on training, sponsored by Fishing Partnership Support Services, is conducted by Coast Guard certified fishing vessel safety instructors.

The Safety-at-Sea training program includes:

- On-Board Firefighting
- Man-Overboard Procedures
- Flooding & Pump Procedures
- Flares & EPIRBs
- Donning & Using Survival Suits
- Life Raft Deployment
- Damage Control
- Emergency Communication/First Aid

Please bring your own survival suits. Training suits are provided for those who do not currently have one.

Pre-registration is recommended. Registration forms are available at:

- U.S. Coast Guard Station Gloucester
- Mass Fishermen's Partnership office at 2 Blackburn Center, Gloucester
- Online at www.fishingpartnership.org
- Or call Angela or Nina at 978-282-4847

Lunch will be provided courtesy of Ocean Marine Insurance Agency. We're grateful to the U.S. Coast Guard and the Massachusetts Fishermen's Partnership for supporting this critical training.
