
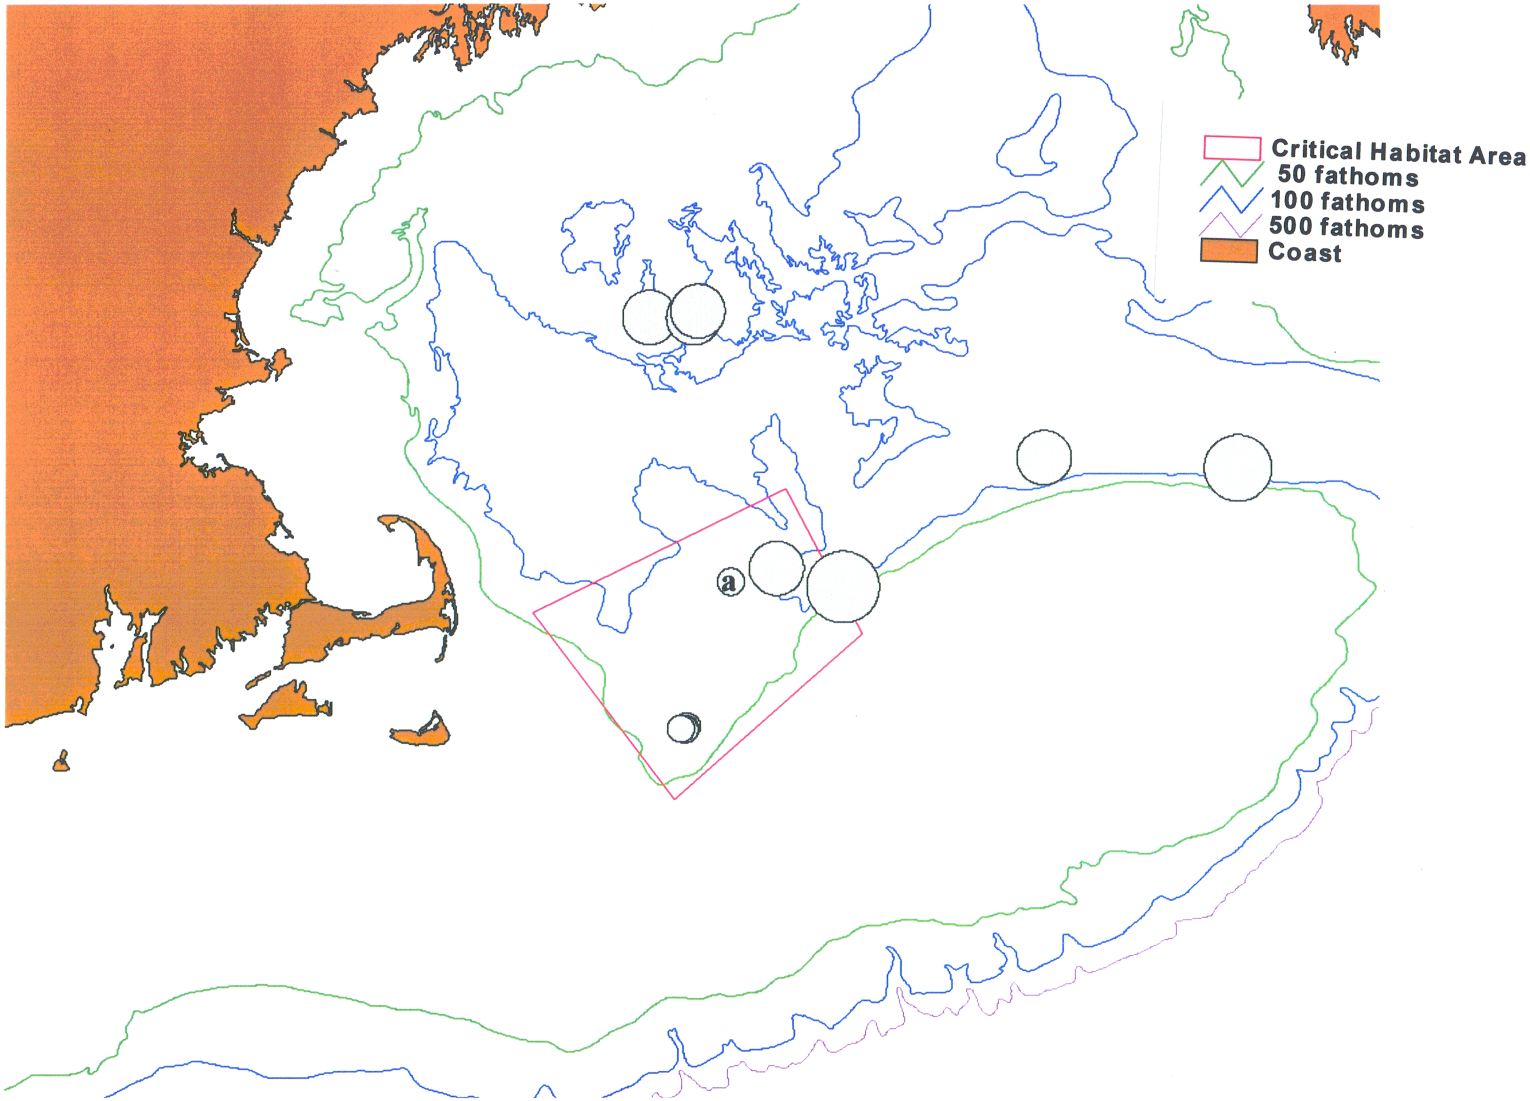

Figure 2. Example plots of proximity circles used to gauge local Right whale densities. Circles are scaled to represent a density of 4.16 whales /nm2 with the smallest circles representing a single whale. Only the lone circle a does not trigger a closure.