

Woods Hole Science Aquarium 2004 Summer Interns

Top row: Paul, Adam, Christina, George, Becky
Bottom row: Alea, Elizabeth, Lauren, Sarah, Shauni

The 2004 interns came from Frankfort, Kentucky
Sandwich, Massachusetts
North Easton, Massachusetts
Falmouth, Massachusetts
Milton, Massachusetts
New Hope, Minnesota
Carlisle, Pennsylvania

Elizabeth cleaning tanks

Adam working on a fish biography

Sarah at the cold water reef tank

Seminars and Training Session Topics
Seals of New England
Fisheries science: stock assessment
Efforts to save Atlantic salmon
Resource management: whales and salmon
Career day with college interns
Scale and otolith analysis to determine fish ages
Identifying fish

Aquarist Tasks
Preparing food for fish, seals, turtles
Feeding fish and turtles
Cleaning tanks
Spraying floors
Checking water quality
Checking traps for animals

Other Tasks
Developing a web-based Guide to Aquarium
Compiling a species list
Creating signs and an aquarium map
Creating activity sheets for visitors
Serving as aquarium guides

Alea filming Elizabeth during a salmon briefing

Checking water quality in the seal pool
Elizabeth, Lauren, Paul, Adam

Field Trips

MBL and WHOI
Visitors' Centers
Shoreside Collecting
Collecting aboard
the Gemma
MBL's
Marine Resources Center
MBL Library
New Bedford waterfront
SEA Education's
Corwith Cramer
NOAA's Albatross

Christina
Jackson State University
NEFSC Intern

If you would like to be on the mailing list for information about the 2005 summer intern program, e-mail us (george.liles@NOAA.gov) or call George Liles at (508) 495-2378